
TEACHER WORKSHEET 7.1

Planning for Classroom Policies

Students Who Need Extra Help

District or school policy:

Student who need extra must inform the teacher to see that proper help is being taken care of.

Committee input:

Student who need extra must inform the teacher to see that proper help is being taken care of.

Classroom policy:

Student who need extra must inform the teacher to see that proper help is being taken care of.

Classroom Cell Phone Use

District or school policy:

Cell phones are not to be used unless there is an emergency or before or after school.

Committee input:

Cell phones may not be used. The school has issued iPads for class work.

Classroom policy:

Cell phones may only be used for emergencies or if a student needs to look at a piece of music that is posted on the google class room app.

Food in the Classroom

District or school policy:

Food may be allowed in the classroom if the student has an medical reasons or if the teacher allows.

Committee input:

Food may be allowed in the classroom if the student has an medical reasons or if the teacher allows.

Classroom policy:

Food may be allowed in the classroom if the student has an medical reasons or if the teacher allows.

(continued on next page)

(continued from previous page)

Missing Work

District or school policy:

The student may make up work; however one day late is a 70, two days is a 50 and three or more days is a zero unless a note is given to excuse the student.

Committee input:

The student may make up work; however one day late is a 70, two days is a 50 and three or more days is a zero unless a note is given to excuse the student.

Classroom policy:

The student may make up work; however one day late is a 70, two days is a 50 and three or more days is a zero unless a note is given to excuse the student.

Cheating

District or school policy:

Work will be taken up and the student will receive a zero and the other student will be questioned.

Committee input:

Work will be taken up and the student will receive a zero and the other student will be questioned.

Classroom policy:

Work will be taken up and the student will receive a zero and the other student will be questioned.

Class Discussions

District or school policy:

Discussions must be educational, productive and given in a positive environment.

Committee input:

Discussions must be educational, productive and given in a positive environment.

Classroom policy:

Discussions must be educational, productive and given in a positive environment.

Tardiness

District or school policy:

Tardiness must be addressed to the attendance counselor. An excess of tardiness will result in ISS.

Committee input:

Tardiness must be addressed to the attendance counselor. An excess of tardiness will result in ISS.

Classroom policy:

Tardiness must be addressed to the attendance counselor. An excess of tardiness will result in ISS and possibly cut from upcoming concerts.

Late or Missing Homework

District or school policy:

The student may make up work; however one day late is a 70, two days is a 50 and three or more days is a zero unless a note is given to excuse the student.

Committee input:

The student may make up work; however one day late is a 70, two days is a 50 and three or more days is a zero unless a note is given to excuse the student.

Classroom policy:

The student may make up work; however one day late is a 70, two days is a 50 and three or more days is a zero unless a note is given to excuse the student.

Appropriate Homework Help

District or school policy:

Homework help is allowed as long as helper is not doing the homework entirely for the student.

Committee input:

Homework help is allowed as long as helper is not doing the homework entirely for the student.

Classroom policy:

Homework help is allowed as long as helper is not doing the homework entirely for the student. Parents obviously cannot practice for their students.

Conflicts with Classmates

District or school policy:

Students will be taken to the assistant principal who will deal with the issue.

Committee input:

Students will be taken to the assistant principal who will deal with the issue.

Classroom policy:

Students will be taken to the assistant principal who will deal with the issue.

Technology Use

District or school policy:

iPads are issued to the students for educational use only for homework and in class use.

(continued on next page)

(continued from previous page)

Committee input:

iPads are issued to the students for educational use only for homework and in class use.

Classroom policy:

iPads are issued to the students for educational use only for homework and in class use. Google Classroom will be used a lot for homework and music issued out.

Grading

District or school policy:

Grading will done within one week of turn in date. Every 6 weeks there will be a progress report.

Committee input:

Grading will done within one week of turn in date. Every 6 weeks there will be a progress report.

Classroom policy:

Grading will done within one week of turn in date. Every 6 weeks there will be a progress report.

Forgotten Materials

District or school policy:

Student who forgot materials run the risk of losing points from their daily grade.

Committee input:

Student who forgot materials run the risk of losing points from their daily grade.

Classroom policy:

Student who forgot materials run the risk of losing points from their daily grade. Forgetting materials will result in class time lost and a challenging time learning the material for that day.

Interactive Technology Responses

District or school policy:

For educational use only. Social media is not to be used.

Committee input:

For educational use only. Social media is not to be used.

Classroom policy:

For educational use only. Social media is not to be used.
